Dear Prospective EDC Member,

Your ALL NEW Economic Development Council (EDC) is creating a vibrant economy on the Olympic Peninsula. The overhauled board of directors now includes only local business leaders. We are launching practical programs to generate new jobs, increase tax revenues, and generally grow our local economy.

EDC members are receiving significant new benefits, as we accomplish our real-world mission. Joining the EDC now brings you the following advantages:

Political Clout - strength in numbers. The EDC will lobby to assure local voices are heard at all levels of government, so this region will get a fair share of government funding.

Special Funding - access to new sources including grants, government funding, debt financing, and in some cases, even private equity funding.

Business Development - priority access to EDC's NEW fee-based Consulting Services

- Business Plan Assistance - help with writing your plan
- Strategic Marketing Support - improve your marketing effectiveness
- Tactical Marketing Support - Marketing Collateral Production Services
- Business Licensing Assistance
- Business Coaching - find and exploit improvement points in your system
- Management Training Classes -- taught by industry leaders

Prestige - members are associated with a dynamic and influential business development organization that is all about appropriate growth, progress, and success.

Networking and Collaboration - regularly scheduled, facilitated networking events and "how to" training to establish cooperative synergies with other local businesses.

In addition, we are attracting compatible new businesses to the Olympic Peninsula. We seek out environmentally correct companies that are synergistic with existing local industries or that are intellectual property producers. We encourage and assist them to locate here.

To accomplish our mission, the EDC needs your help. By joining the EDC now, you can help us to create a business friendly environment, job opportunities for our young people and a healthy, vibrant economy on the Peninsula. Please choose your preferred membership level from the next page, and sign up right now. Then start taking advantage of your new tools.

Thanks for Your Attention,

Ian McFall
